

STEVEN K. MIGNOGNA

Steven K. Mignogna, Esquire is a partner with Archer & Greiner and serves as both the Co-Chair of the firm's Estates and Trusts Group and Chair of the Estate and Trust Litigation Group. Steve specializes in commercial litigation, including litigation involving probate matters, estates, trusts, gifts, fiduciaries, guardianships, and real estate, handling cases in the state and federal courts, at both the trial and appellate levels. Representing both institutions and individuals, Steve's clients include banks, corporate fiduciaries, investment companies, educational and charitable institutions, and real estate firms, as well as beneficiaries of estates and trusts, executors, trustees, guardians, incapacitated persons, surviving spouses, and persons having an interest in real estate.

Steve serves on the Advisory Committee of the Heckerling Institute. He is a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC) and holds several leadership roles in ACTEC, including: State Chair for New Jersey; Chair of ACTEC's Fiduciary Litigation Committee; and the ACTEC Board of Regents. He is active in ACTEC in several other areas, including the Professional Responsibility Committee, the Fiduciary Administration Task Force, the Program Committee, the Joint Task Force of ACTEC and the National College of Probate Judges, and the Advisory Committee to ACTEC's Mid-Atlantic Fellows Institute.

Active in the American Bar Association (ABA), Steve has held leadership roles in the ABA's Real Property, Trust and Estate Law Section, including: Chair of the Litigation, Ethics and Malpractice Group, as well as Chair of that Group's Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee and Probate and Fiduciary Litigation Committee; Section Liaison to the ABA Dispute Resolution Advisory Committee; and several administrative Committees in the Section.

Steve is a national lecturer and author. He has lectured and published for ACTEC, the Heckerling Institute, the National College of Probate Judges, the American Bar Association, the New Jersey Bar Association, the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education, the American Law Institute Continuing Legal Education Group, the Duke University Estate Planning Conference, the Delaware Trust Conference, and Estate Planning Councils and other professional groups around the country. He authors the treatise, Estate and Trust Litigation, and is the editor and contributing author of The New Jersey Estate Planning Manual and New Jersey Probate Procedures Manual. In 2017, the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education honored him with the Distinguished Service Award.

Steve is also a Senior Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America, a national honorary society for trial lawyers.

An attorney since 1989, Steve has been with Archer & Greiner since 1988, when he joined the firm as a law clerk. Steve is admitted to the bars of the state and federal courts of New Jersey and Pennsylvania. He is also admitted to the Third Circuit Court of Appeals and the United States Supreme Court.

Steve earned his law degree from Rutgers University School of Law, and obtained his Bachelor's Degree from St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia. Along with his service to the legal profession, Steve remains active in various charitable and community organizations, including the Philly Pops Board, the Alicia Rose Victorious Foundation Board, the Chevaliers du Tastevin, and the Knights of Columbus. In 2021, he was honored by the Alicia Rose Victorious Foundation as a Community Champion. In 2020, he was recognized by the Camden County Bar Association as the Professional Lawyer of the Year, through the New Jersey Commission on Professionalism in the Law. In 2017, Steve received the Excalibur Award from the Bishop Eustace Preparatory School Alumni Association, recognizing his lifetime achievement in civic, religious, humanitarian, and professional endeavors.
