Gary R. Botwinick joined the firm in 1998 and became a partner in 2001. His career began in the IRS Manhattan District Counsel Office, where he tried civil cases before the US Tax Court. In 1996, he became an associate with a large law firm in Morristown, NJ.

Gary chairs the firm's Trusts/Taxation & Estates Department and represents families and individuals concerning estate planning, business succession, taxation and related matters. He handles complex estate controversy matters as well as estate administration matters. Gary also works closely with our Family Law Department in complex divorce matters involving executives and officers of some of the largest publically traded companies in New Jersey. He is experienced in the preparation and negotiation of premarital agreements and palimony matters. He also has a busy tax controversy practice where he represents individuals and entities against the IRS and the New Jersey Division of Taxation.

As an adjunct professor at Fairleigh Dickinson University, Gary taught the estate planning component of the University's Certified Financial Planner Program. He is a frequent lecturer for the New Jersey Institute of Continuing Legal Education, and has published several articles in the New Jersey Law Journal and other publications.

Gary received his BS in accounting from the University of Florida, a JD with honors from Rutgers University School of Law and his LL.M in Taxation from NYU School of Law.

In 2006, Gary was named to the prestigious "40 Under 40" issue of the New Jersey Law Journal, a publication profiling attorneys who have distinguished themselves in their practice at a young age. Also in 2006, he was elected as a fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel, a national peer-nominated organization of attorneys who have demonstrated the highest level of integrity, commitment to the profession, competence and experience as trust and estate counselors. He is still the youngest lawyer in the State of New Jersey with that distinction.

Gary is president emeritus of the Estate Planning Council of Northern New Jersey and served on the board for five years preceding taking such office. He now serves on the board for the Grotta Fund under the umbrella of the Jewish Community Foundation of Greater Metrowest. He has also recently been appointed to the New Jersey-Israel Commission by Governor Chris Christie.
