

Richard S. LeVine, Esq.

Richard LeVine is counsel to Withers Bergman LLP. Mr. LeVine's practice concentrates in the areas of income tax, gift and estate tax planning for domestic and foreign high net worth individuals, families, trusts, estates and charitable organizations; tax and business planning for domestic and foreign closely-held corporations, partnerships and limited liability companies, including personal and compensation planning for private investment funds and their principals, immigration tax planning for individuals taking up US residency, expatriation tax planning for individuals terminating their US citizenship or residence, and inbound and outbound tax planning for cross-border investment.