

Suzanne Pagonis

Suzanne Pagonis is Vice President at Frenkel and Company. She began her career in 1988 with Crum and Forster in claims and sales management. She joined Chubb Insurance Company in 1993 as an underwriter and then moved over to production for PLI Brokerage (a national property and casualty agency owned by Chubb). The agency specialized in personal lines for the affluent and high-net-worth client. Suzanne became a top producer and a Vice President. PLI was bought by HUB International and Suzanne continued to develop new business in the affluent/high-net-worth marketplace throughout the Northeast.

In 2008, Suzanne joined HRH/Willis as a Vice President with a specialty focus on the design and risk management solutions for high-net-worth clients and the affluent clientele marketplace. In 2010, Suzanne joined Frenkel and Company, as a Vice President, counseling affluent and high-net-worth individuals and families on their risk management and insurance programs.

Suzanne lives in Bernardsville with her twins, fiancé and step-daughter. Suzanne is a graduate of Fairleigh Dickinson University with a BS in Marketing and has passed 9 out of 10 exams for her CPCU designation.
