

John Pullara, CIC, CISR

John Pullara is a Vice President & Senior Client Advisor in Private Client Services (PCS). John has over (20) years of experience as a licensed property & casualty insurance professional. He specializes in Insurance & Personal Risk Management for high-net-worth & high profile individuals including athletes, musicians, entertainers, and private collectors. John began his insurance career with a NYC/NJ firm and later went on to lead, manage, and build DeWitt Stern's Personal Risk Management Division & Select Business, where he oversaw the firm's largest high net worth personal insurance programs. John joined Frenkel in 2013. He has attained the national designations of Certified Insurance Counselor (CIC) and Certified Insurance Service Representative (CISR). He is a past president of the New Jersey Young Insurance Professionals (NJYIP), and a past board member of the Professional Insurance Agents of NJ (PIANJ). John currently serves on the NYC Advisory Board for PIANY and is a member of the Berkeley Heights Boy Scout Troop 368 committee. He holds a B.S. in Marketing with a minor in Graphic Design from Rutgers University. John lives in Berkeley Heights, NJ with his wife and two sons.