Kei Sasaki is a Senior Vice President with Northern Trust and serves as a Senior Portfolio Advisor for its Wealth Management business. Working in partnership with Northern Trust’s thought leaders and specialist teams, Kei provides actionable insights into the global economy and capital markets and manages personalized, goals-based investment portfolios for high-net worth individuals, wealthy families and foundations. Kei also serves as a member of the firm’s Investment Advisory Committee.

Kei has over 25 years of global industry experience, specializing in economic and capital markets research, investment strategy and wealth management.

Prior to joining Northern Trust, he was a Managing Director with Wells Fargo Private Wealth Management serving as Regional Chief Investment Officer and led a team of investment professionals who delivered client-centric, multi-asset class portfolios for high-net worth clients. He was the investment thought leader of the Eastern Region and frequently shared his perspectives at client and industry events, with the media and through written commentary. Before joining Wells Fargo, Kei was a Managing Director with PineBridge Investments, where he held the roles of Head of Equity Research and Client Portfolio Manager representing the firm’s fundamental, quantitative and ESG equity strategies. Earlier in his career, he held positions at Credit Suisse Asset Management and Yasuda Bank and Trust Company.

Kei received a Bachelor of Science in International Business and Finance from New York University and a Master of Business Administration from Fordham University with honorary distinction.

He is a CFA® charterholder and member of the CFA Institute and the CFA Society of New York.
