

Peggy Sheahan Knee is a member of The Knee Law Firm, L.L.C. in Hackensack, New Jersey. She concentrates her practice in estate planning and administration, elder law and estate and trust litigation.

Ms. Sheahan Knee is admitted to practice in New York, New Jersey and Florida and is certified by the National Elder Law Foundation, an organization accredited by the American Bar Association, as an Elder Law Attorney. She served as past president of the New Jersey State Bar Association and served as the organization's president from May 2008 through May 2009. A past Chair of the Real Property, Trust and Estate Law Section of the NJSBA and of the NJSBA Women in the Profession Section, Ms. Sheahan Knee served as Past President of the Northern New Jersey Estate Planning Council, as a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel and as a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation. She was the recipient of the NJSBA 2000 Legislative Service Award and a 2002 recipient of ICLE's Distinguished Service Award. She has been a keynote speaker and frequent lecturer before professional and business groups, and has been published in legal periodicals and newspapers.

Ms. Sheahan Knee is the author of New Jersey Probate and Estate Administration 2011 edition and New Jersey Elder Law 2010/2011 edition, both published by Lexis Nexis and was an adjunct professor at Rutgers-Newark Law School.

A graduate of Fordham College and Fordham University School of Law, Ms. Sheahan Knee holds a Masters of Law in Taxation from New York University School of Law.