

Susan Greenbaum

Susan Greenbaum has been the Chief Executive Officer of Jewish Family & Children's Services of Northern New Jersey for the last 8 years. After spending her early life outside of Boston, Susan graduated from Brandeis University and later went on to receive her Masters of Social Work from Yeshiva University's Wurzweiler School of Social Work. Susan spent the majority of her career, over 36 years, working in various Jewish Community Centers across the Eastern Seaboard.

In 2014, Susan became the Executive Director of what was then called JFS of Bergen. In 2017, Susan successfully led the merger of JFS Bergen and JFS of North Jersey into the new entity: Jewish Family & Children's Services of Northern NJ. Based in Teaneck, NJ, JFCS has 4 pillars of service: Older Adult Services, Mental Health Services, Food Insecurity Services and Basic Needs Assistance, and serves clients from Bergen, Passaic and Hudson County. Susan uses her background as a licensed clinical social worker, her extensive community experience and her administrative and fundraising skills to oversee and develop the many different services offered at JFCS.
